Calgary Sportsman Squeeps All In Thoroughbred Class

GEORGE ADDISON SCORES VICTORY AT EXHIBITION

Judging of Livestock Was Practically Completed Wednesday

George Addison, popular Calgary sportsman and breeder of thoroughbred horses, practically won the battle in this class as the result of the judging Wednesday. In one class he added to his record by winning the championship. This was particularly true of the grade group. Addison's horse, a bay, named "The Sportsman," was carried off by the judges. Addison's horse was the only one of its kind in the class. Addison's horse was the only one of its kind in the class. Addison's horse was the only one of its kind in the class.

NO DEARTH OF GOOD COOKS IN ALBERTA

Edmonton Housewives Take Major Portion of Baking Awards

Housewives found much to interest them during the judging of the baking and cooking exhibits at the fair on Wednesday and it was quite evident that Alberta has no dearth of good cooks at least. Bread, cakes, fruit cake, pastry, preserves and pickles were all on display, the eyes of every young housewife.

Home-makers of Edmonton won a goodly portion of the awards, though the housewives of the surrounding districts also shared in the prizes.

90 DEAD FROM VIENNA RIOTS

VIENNA, July 21.—Ninety-one dead is the latest official count of the number of victims of Friday's street fighting in the vicinity of the palace and the opera house.

The hospitals are still harboring scores of seriously wounded men and women, many of whom are not expected to recover.

Joint funeral services for 75 victims were held this afternoon in the central cemetery, where long rows of coffins rested on a specially constructed catafalque. Only a few organizations were permitted to take part in the ceremonies.

As a sign of mourning, industrial plants closed for an hour during the afternoon. Operations in the telephone service were suspended for six minutes.

"Where does the demand for used cars come from?" That's a question asked a used car dealer who was up to his eyes in sales during Exhibition week.

"That's easy," he said. "It comes from people who have never owned a car, or from those who have owned cars and see a chance to get a bigger and better model than the bus they have been driving. That means that the demand comes from everyone and everywhere, for there are few people in and around Edmonton today who haven't wished they owned a car or have owned a car at some time."

Then he elaborated.

"People do not sell their old autos because the engine, has worn out, but because they have the desire to be up-to-date in every respect and want the latest available model, or because their old car has begun to look shabby," he said. "No used car dealer re-sells a car until it has been thoroughly re-conditioned and put in shape to give good service. Re-conditioned, painted, overhauled thoroughly in every respect, they are put on the street again thoroughly dependable and almost as good as new although their own old owners would hardly recognize them."

Possession of good cars is no longer relegated to men of means. A man with a moderate bank account may go into one of the used car markets, and by paying 40 per cent of the purchase price down, depart with a good car. During Exhibition week every year many cars are sold by used car dealers. Special reductions are made to catch the eye of the out-of-town buyers. Farmers who had no notion that they could afford a car often see these prices, and buy a car which they drive around the city during their visit and then drive out home on their return.

Overhead expense are cut down by the use of vacant lots in which to display these cars. Thus the dealer is enabled to make a margin of profit and to give the purchaser a real bargain. The large increase in the number of auto licenses issued from year to year indicates that the used car is not displacing the sale of new cars, but simply adding to the number of car owners.

JACK SHARKEY STILL FAVORED TO WIN OVER EX-CHAMPION

Expect 75,000 Fans Will Attend Fight Tonight—Many Fans Are Picking Jack Dempsey to Make Come-Back

NEW YORK, July 21.—In what promises to be the most spectacular non-championship fight in the history of the ring, Jack Dempsey will battle Jack Sharkey tonight to decide which is to meet Gene Tunney for the heavyweight championship of the world in September.

They will fight in one of the Vanities stadium in a 15-round main event which has attracted as much, if not more, widespread interest than any battle on record, chiefly because of the attempted come-back of the most colorful ring man of modern times, Dempsey.

At least 75,000 spectators and possibly 80,000, including many motorists,
